

NARBERTH PEOPLE PRAISE SERVICE MEN'S GIFT BOXES

To the Editor:

Sir: One has only to listen to the excited, enthusiastic comments of the many people who stop at our window to look at the display of Christmas gifts to be sent to Narberth service men to realize that here is a community achievement of the first order.

They have been greatly surprised at the number of articles to be sent, delighted with the thoughtful selection made by the committee, and impressed by the personal touch that is so evident in every gift.

The generous response of the community and the excellent work of the capable committee cannot help but brighten Christmas day for our men in service. They will know that we have them in our minds and in our hearts.

—RALPH S. DUNNE.

To the Editor:

Sir: Those Narberth Christmas boxes for Narberth Service men are tops in practically, masculinity and sentiment, or else I've forgotten all I ever knew about being a young man far away from a beloved hometown.

—ROBERT FELLOWS WOOD.

To the Editor:

Narberth's Christmas boxes could not have been better selected, for this I know out of experience.

When it becomes necessary for a man in combat service to "shed the pack" or whatever it may be called in his particular unit, he knows he is parting company with nearly everything that represents contact with home and loved ones.

At such a time, he tries to find a place for the most precious and useful things that he can save. The Narberth kit contains more articles that he can keep with him than one could ever have imagined possible.

—HENRY E. FRYE,
Borough Solicitor

Sir:

I observed today the display of articles to be included in the Service Men's Christmas boxes and was impressed with the thoroughness with which the committee has executed its task. Every detail has been cared for, resulting in a finished kit that speaks quality and good taste. Certainly the recipients will appreciate the gifts and the thought that prompted the people of the borough to take speedy and generous action in sending them all some Christmas cheer. It is just another excellent gesture of good will that we at home can and should make.

It was a superb idea and again I say it was exceedingly well done.

—W. J. DRENNEN, Principal,
Narberth Public School.

To the Editor:

It is in order to say that the committee which provided Christmas boxes for our men in the Service has turned in a perfectly splendid job. I believe that every recipient will be delighted with the numerous and unusual gifts selected and that he is sure to be proud of his Home Town and of the folks who made the gifts possible.

Burgess.

Overseas Boxes Are On Their Way

The overseas boxes are affectionately on their way, being toted to the Post Office Friday midnight, where Mailing Chairman Thomas F. Merkle bedecked them with many dollars' worth of stamps, to cover the postal tariffs on the long hauls and the special insurance which accompanied each package.

From now on the chief concern will be for the boxes which will go to the domestic camps, hundreds of them, and that in turn means thousands of gifts, each one of them wrapped separately and each adorned with Christmas symbols.

On Tuesday of this week, Wrapping Chairman Laura McCaffrey summoned her valiant squad for a full night's work and on this Friday night they will be hard at it again.

Meanwhile samples of the gifts are displayed in the window of Ralph Dunne's Fuel Office and Mr. Dunne says his chief ambition from now on will be to arrange a coal exhibit which will attract a fifth of the attention now being given to the array of Christmas remembrances.

According to the Committee, each article was selected with a particular need in mind and, as the informal report in the window points out, there was a need of avoiding those items which the families of the men were likely to send.

One diversion was made from the rule not to send perishable goods and that was the exception on chewing gum, great gobs of which were included, on the score that the men want it and that precious little of it is available "over there," even in Ireland or England.

Also not shown in the window was the foot-power which was included, a generous quantity of it, so that our men could better cope with the beating which heavy-duty shoes are apt to give tender feet as a result of long, hard marches.

Altogether there were 15 items in the well-protected box as it went sea-bound and affixed to each box was a post-office visa which should assure the Narberth consignment passing through without benefit of censor and without the necessity of disturbing the attractive wrappings which the local women made a thing of rare handiwork.

The same solicitude will prevail on the domestic shipments and the community should take comfort in the reflection that it has done what it could to share with the men who are away those Christmas sentiments which will have a particular significance at this war-torn interval.

Any changes in location should be reported immediately to the Chairman of the List Committee: Narberth 2683.

Special Question: Have the families of the men who were inducted in October reported the present addresses of their kin, viz: the Camps to which they were transferred from the Reception Center? If not, they should phone NARBERTH 2683 AT ONCE!

LET THIS BE THE RULE WHICH SHALL GOVERN

The "surprise" feature of a gift is perhaps the best feature of all and only a thoughtless (or willful) person will tell what is in a gift package before it is opened by its recipient. Therefore, relatives should convey no advance glimpse of the contents of Narberth's Christmas box in their letters to the Service Men, and it is hoped that all concerned shall be prudent on this point, so that the real spirit of the offering shall be carefully preserved.

Rotarians See Four Documentary Films

Herbert Bruder, manager of the Ardmore office of the Bell Telephone Company and a member of the Ardmore Rotary Club, showed four documentary war films at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club on Tuesday.

Plant Tree in Honor of Munro

Narberth Man, Missing in Action, Honored at School Exercises

Tuesday the Narberth Public School presented an Arbor Day program and planted a copper beech tree in memory of Alan Christopher Munro, who was reported missing in action after his ship was torpedoed off West Palm Beach, Fla., May 9.

A biography written by his brother Donald, of Secane, was read by Miss Margaret White, Alan, who had lived in Narberth all his life, received the Nelly M. Wetherill award from the Narberth Public School. After graduation from Lower Merion High School in 1939, he went with the Hawaiian Steamship Company, studying at the University of Pennsylvania and School of Bible at the same time.

Commissioned as a purser on the Merchant Marine S. S. Ohlson, he left New York in December, 1941, for South Africa and India. He sent a message from Puerto Rico stating that he would arrive in New York May 12, 1942.

His mother, Mrs. Elizabeth S. Munro, placed a marker inscribed "Worthy of Our Nation," beside the beech tree.

The fifth grade, directed by Miss Margaret White, sponsored the program. Patsy Rainey gave a scripture reading, Dorothy Lillard recited the poem, "The Tree Stands Very Straight and Still," Betty Jane Merkle gave an essay on the conservation of trees, and Dick Squier recited, "What Do We Plant?" Members of the fifth grade gave appropriate choral selections.

Pupils Collect 36,000 Tin Cans

Cynwyd School Leads; Householders Asked To Cooperate

Lower Merion's tin can campaign got well under way last week with about 36,000 cans collected in the elementary and junior high schools by pupils from their families and friends. The Cynwyd School, with 12,000 properly prepared cans, is the leader in the field, and its Fifth Grade had collected the largest quantity of any single class.

The Bryn Mawr School, a smaller unit, had about 3,200 cans. There the First Grade led the opening week of the campaign, and the Fifth Grade brought in the largest amount last week.

It is expected that by the first of the year, or even before, that the 15 or 20 tons for a full carload will have been collected. When the necessary load has been reached the cans will be sent to defuncting stations to take their part in the war effort.

Householders are being urged to contact school children.

Reports from the Township incinerator show 14,100 pounds of iron, 16,300 pounds of paper, 2,900 pounds of rags, 1,400 pounds of rubber, 1,600 pounds of other metals, and 36,400 pounds of glass were salvaged during the week October 26 through 31.

This brings Lower Merion's salvage collections for the month of October to 17 tons of rubber, 6.9 tons of rags, 69.5 tons of glass, 180 tons of iron, 28.9 tons of paper, 4.1 tons of tin cans, 298.9 tons of vital war materials.

A report of these collections is being forwarded to the State Salvage Committee from the Township Council of Defense.

Martin Majority Here Leads All Counties

Republican Sweep Tops Delaware

Made Possible By Workers Polling 55% Of Vote, Says Peters

Montgomery County leads all other Pennsylvania counties in the decisive majority of 29,787 votes it gave to General Edward Martin, successful Republican candidate for governor. The vote for all G.O.P. candidates was just as decisive.

Montgomery and Delaware counties, two political sub-divisions bordering each other, have had neck-and-neck races throughout the years to determine which one would turn in the heaviest Republican majority. Because of its heavy population Delaware has maintained a slight edge.

This year Delaware fell into second place when the majority for General Martin was only 28,747.

Although the top-heavy Martin vote was a surprise to some its possibility was predicted by Lloyd H. Wood, chairman of the Montgomery County Republican Committee, in a speech at a meeting of the Lower Merion Township Republican Committee in Whitehall Hotel, Haverford, the Wednesday night before election.

"Actually," said Wood, "we are hopeful of getting a 30,000 majority. Now, it is only a question of getting out the vote."

According to Republican Leader Fred C. Peters, president of the Montgomery County Board of Commissioners, the County's unprecedented showing was due to preliminary work done by the Party's committee men and women and their workers in getting out the vote. In placing Montgomery on the forefront as the leading Republican county approximately 55 percent of the registered voters turned out last Tuesday.

Tabulation of the County's 190 voting precincts gave General Martin 52,843 votes to the 23,076 cast for his Democratic opponent, F. Clair Ross.

Lower Merion's candidate on the State ticket, John C. Bell, Jr., polled a majority of 31,303 over Elmer Kilroy, for lieutenant governor.

This is the second time within the last decade that Montgomery County has led other Republican counties of Pennsylvania. In 1940 it gave a substantial majority to Wendell Willkie.

Defense Council Asks Citizens To Augment Appropriation From Boro

Says Money Available Is Inadequate To Buy Needed Equipment; Will Make House-to-house Canvas For Donations; Report Given on Expenditures

An appeal was made this week to the citizens of Narberth to augment appropriations from the Borough Council with contributions to the Civilian Defense fund.

The appeal came from the Narberth Defense Council whose chairman is Burns F. Best.

As explained in a report on defense activities a member of one of the local defense units will call at each home. Residents are asked to be sure and receive official receipts for their contributions.

The report shows that only $77.99 has been expended for defense activities up to October 15. Of this amount $686.74 was from the Borough's appropriation of $1000 and $91.25 from $285.65 which was raised from a movie benefit. This leaves a balance of $507.66, which according to the Defense Council is inadequate for the equipment that is needed.

In part the report and appeal of the Defense Council reads as follows:

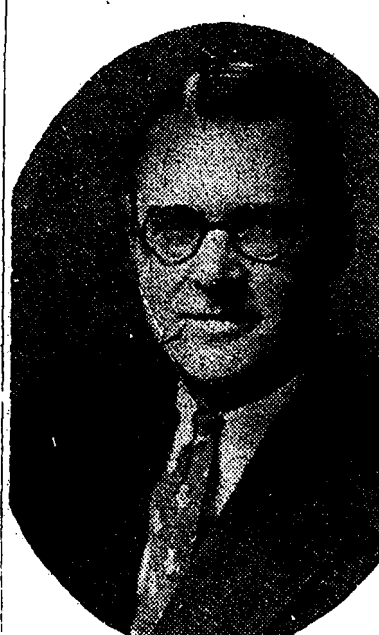

"Just a few immediate necessities include helmets, material and equipment for dealing with incendiary bombs; equipment and supplies for decontamination squads; mobile equipment for at least each of the 11 sectors of Narberth, which will carry the equipment required to deal with any emergency in your neighborhood. (In two sectors such mobile units are in existence having been built and paid for by a few people).

"While it is hoped that Borough Council's 1943 appropriation may be adequate for the increasing needs the New Year will bring, that hope will not answer the vital needs of TODAY.

"Since this is a matter which

G.O.P. Carries Boro Nearly 5 to 1; 59% Turnout Of Vote Unexpected

Second District Gives Gen. Martin a Majority Of 602 Over Ross; State Senator Edmonds Swamps Opponent and Leads Ticket

Exceeded only in presidential years, Narberth brought out nearly 60 percent of its voting populace on Tuesday to give the Republican Party one of the most decisive victories it has had in the Borough in years.

Both in the number of their party members voted and in the majorities rolled up, the Borough Republicans had a slight edge on their brethren in Lower Merion.

Based on the number of party members registered, Republicans in the Township voted 52 percent of their party registration on Tuesday while 55 percent turned out in Narberth. While the vote for Republican candidates was running about four to one in Lower Merion it was running closer to five to one in the Borough.

All Republican candidates carried Narberth's three election districts and piled up their best majorities in the Second District. Here, for example, the vote was 776 for General Edward Martin and 174 for F. Clair Ross.

Similar to what happened in the Township, State Senator Franklin Spencer Edmonds, running against Gerald R. Nocton, was high man on the ticket. In the three districts he polled 1626 votes against 380 for his opponent.

Heavy voting ran contrary to predictions which contended that most people were too preoccupied with the war to go to the polls. Total registration in the Borough is 3346 for the two major parties with 1995 or 59 percent turning out to vote. This is broken down into a Republican registration of 2719 and a Democratic registration of 427. Based on the Martin vote of 1615 and the Ross vote of 380 the Republicans polled 55 percent and the Democrats 88 percent of their vote.

Major Gary Guest For Scout Dinner

U. S. Navy Man Also Among Speakers for Annual Meeting

Major Rex I. Gary, former Scout executive of the Valley Forge Council, will be the guest of honor at the annual Main Line District Scouters dinner to be held November 16 at the Ardmore Presbyterian Church.

Major Gary, who is nationally known for his Scout work, is now attached to the office of officer procurement for the U. S. Army in Philadelphia.

A graduate of Illinois College, where he was varsity quarterback for four years, Gary was a captain in World War I, receiving several citations for bravery in combat.

He entered Scouting as the executive at St. Joseph's, Mo., and immediately won recognition, not only for the numerical growth of Scouting in his district, but also for the splendid type of citizenship training he accomplished.

A. Morse Baker, Bryn Mawr, member of the executive committee, will be the toastmaster. Opening and closing exercises will be directed by members of Troop 1, Ardmore.

Speakers, in addition to Major Gary, will include William Ferguson, of the U. S. Navy; Dr. Charles Belney, acting chairman of the executive committee; Arthur Binns

Legion Plans Survey Of Jalopies For Salvage

American Legionnaires of the Main Line will play their part soon in the National Salvage Campaign by making a house-to-house jalopy survey.

Communications about the survey have been received by officials of the five American Legion posts in Ardmore, Bryn Mawr, Merion, Bala-Cynwyd and Narberth.

The survey to reclaim the jalopies for scrap will be from November 13 to November 14.

A ruling of the survey is that no jalopy shall be reclaimed unless it does not or cannot furnish transportation.

When a jalopy is spotted, the Legionnaires will use their influence to persuade the owners to sell it to the nearest automobile graveyard.

In Lower Merion Township committees of the American Legion posts will work with Ralph Springer, who is chairman of the Lower Merion Defense Council Salvage committee.

First organization work of the Legion posts will be to select committees and chairmen to plan and conduct the survey.

It is estimated by State defense officials that there are more than 100,000 jalopies in Pennsylvania that could be salvaged.

C. Brooke Jones, Jr. Starts Training

Jones is a Lower Merion High School graduate and attended State College for three years. He took the flying course at State College and received a civilian pilot's license. At State he was taking the engineering course.

Commends County Government For "Good War Time Housekeeping"; Has $1,180,884 Cash Balance In Treasury

Good government housekeeping that has resulted in a saving of over half a million dollars in Montgomery County is commended in a report released by Dr. Frank P. Barker, County Controller.

Personally he commends the three county commissioners, Fred C. Peters, Foster C. Hillegass and Raymond K. Mensch, for their efficient conduct of county affairs.

Among other things Dr. Barker says that although the County Commissioners budgeted $1,828,219.23 for a nine month period ending September 30, 1942, for expenditures of the County, they actually spent $1,302,972.37.

"This is good housekeeping on their part," says the Controller, "for it represents a saving of over one half million dollars."

Pointing out that Montgomery County is continuing its "Pay as You Go Policy," and is free of all debt, he compared this fine record to other Third Class Counties in Pennsylvania with their higher tax rates and their "net bonded debt." The other third class counties and their respective bonded debt is: Delaware County, $4,506,931; Luzerne, $2,503,806; Westmoreland, $1,531,074, and Lackawanna, $1,169,390.

Dr. Barker reveals in his report that the County's cash balance as of October 26, 1942, was $1,180,884.60, and also dwells at some length on the County's low, and continually decreasing tax rate, and by comparison shows how this affects the average tax payer.

The report: "As Controller of Montgomery County I deem it a great privilege as well as an obligation of my office to submit a report including pertinent data to the taxpayers of our county as to the present

CIVILIAN DEFENSE INFORMATION

PROTECTION OF FOODS FROM POISON GAS

Suggestions for protection of foods in the home against contamination from poison gas during an enemy air raid, have been released by the Office of Civilian Defense.

Recommendations are based upon studies of British experience under actual raid conditions and prepared by G. E. Arnold, regional sanitary engineer of the Ninth Civilian Defense Region.

There are four major factors attendant on air raids which may result in contamination of food on pantry shelves and elsewhere in the home, Mr. Arnold says. These are: flying glass, smoke and gases from exploding bombs and shells, dust raised by nearby explosions, and chemical warfare agents commonly known as poison gas.

In the home the safe rule is to keep all foods commonly stored in the open — potatoes and other vegetables, cereals in paper cartons, cured meats, etc. — in closets, heavy cupboards, closed wooden bins, or other places where they cannot be reached by flying glass.

Care should be taken in storing food, however, that it is placed in such a manner that it will not be shaken from shelves and the containers broken by falling.

The secret of protecting foods against gas is simple — seal it up. Several types of containers offer complete protection against war gas. Among the best are glass jars or bottles with screw caps or good stoppers and tin cans with tight-fitting lids. Flour, cereals, sugar, rice, and similar non-perishable foods may be stored safely in this manner. If they are reserve supplies, the containers may be carefully wrapped in paper before being put away.

The ordinary type of domestic refrigerator is adequate protection for perishable foods if the door forms a reasonably tight air seal. Ice boxes, with a separate door for ice and an open water outlet, may not be adequate. If there is any doubt about the safety of the refrigerator, closed containers may be used in it.

Protection of bulkier foods, such as potatoes in quantity, hams, bread, etc., is somewhat more of a problem than is the case with smaller amounts but can be accomplished by the intelligent use of cans, jars, and other containers.

Start After School Play Project At B. M. Center

Volunteers interested in child care are being sought by the Citizens Service Corps of the Lower Merion Council of Defense to assist with the Bryn Mawr Play Center, an after-school play project recently organized at the Bryn Mawr Public School under the auspices of the Montgomery County Committee on Day Care of Children.

Skilled workers are needed particularly in crafts of all kinds: metal-working, wood-carving, clay modeling, sewing and knitting; for rhythmic dancing classes; and for work of interest to 11 to 12 year old boys.

Whether or not they have had any previous training or experience for this type of work however, volunteers will still be welcomed by the Committee for the Center has a dual purpose, that of providing supervised play for the children and of training leaders who may later give help in organizing other such centers.

It is planned to have the group work for the children, all pupils at the School, whose parents have signified a desire to have them attend, Mondays through Thursdays from 2:30 to 5 o'clock. Leaders should be at the Center as near 2 o'clock as possible, and plan to

Unbeaten Norristown Challenges Lower Merion High Grid Streak In Rubber Match of Ancient Feud

It's Lower Merion vs Norristown on Pennypacker Field this Saturday.

The meeting of these old arch-rivals is always a signal for a rise in temperatures among local football fans and this year it's more pronounced than ever because both teams are undefeated. In addition, it's the rubber game in the series which started in 1904. Each has beaten the other 13 times.

Lower Merion will be seeking its sixth straight Suburban Conference victory. Norristown will be after its third. Actually the game is more important to Lower Merion because a victory will give the Maroon the inside track in the race for the Suburban Conference crown. Even if it should be victorious Saturday, Norristown's chances of taking the title would be slim because it has been tied by both Upper Merion and Chester.

On performances to date Lower Merion should win but many observers believe Norristown is capable of giving the Maroon more competition than any other suburban opponent. The Eagles have been pointing for this game since the season started, determined to gain revenge for 21-0 and 26-6 defeats of the last two years. The underdog role suits them perfectly because the underdog more often than not prevails in these traditional clashes.

After watching the Maroon throttle Phoenixville, 26-0, at Villanova stadium last Saturday, Lower Merion backers are confident their team is quite capable of dealing firmly with any opposition Norristown may offer. They point out Norristown had difficulty beating Phoenixville, 13-0 and was held to 0-0 by a Chester eleven that was trounced 26-0 by the Maroon. "Comparative scores don't mean a thing," grumbles Coach Dick Mattis, who has been cracking the whip with more zest than usual in the week's workouts. "We have a tough battle on our hands and unless we're right we'll be lucky to win. I wish we were the underdogs."

However, Mattis was quite pleased with the victory over Phoenixville, the first L. M. ever scored over the Chester Countians. The games marked a resumption of relations which were severed in 1935 after a free-for-all broke out on Pennypacker Field following a 0-0 game that season. In their only other meeting, Phoenixville triumphed, 72, in 1934.

There was never any doubt as to the outcome Saturday. The Maroon pushed over a touchdown in the first period, added another in the second for a 13-0 halftime lead then exploded for two scores in the third period. As usual, Coach Mattis used a steady stream of substitutes but the team showed no slackening of its pace.

Vernon Young, speedy Negro halfback, grabbed the spotlight by scoring two touchdowns. He provided the biggest thrill of the game when he returned a punt 95 yards for the final touchdown in the third quarter. He also accounted for the other tally in this period, sprinting off tackle from

What we're doing to "keep YOU rolling"

A message to Commuters

YOU SEE the guns, and tanks, and troops go rolling by—and you know our trains are doing their part in the war effort.

But don't think for a single moment you have been forgotten. It's still our job to get you to your desk, your store or the production line.

Moreover, that job isn't so easy as it used to be. Now, due to tire and gas rationing and increased wartime employment, Pennsylvania Railroad trains serving the four principal Philadelphia suburban divisions are carrying many more passengers. Since June, more than a half million additional passengers each month compared with the same months a year ago.

That gives us a problem. We want you to be comfortable and to have a seat. But there are just so many cars. And we can't build another one, or have one built—the steel is needed for war purposes.

So here is what we're doing: maintaining a day-to-day check on every train; adding a car here, subtracting one there, as traffic warrants; keeping in constant contact with local war industries in order to set up schedules and equipment most convenient for their workers. We shall cooperate in all ways possible to meet the necessities of commuters as best we can under changing wartime conditions.

If occasionally you should be inconvenienced—have to stand—be delayed because of a heavy wartime freight or troop movement—we trust you will accept it with understanding and patience, and realize we are trying to do our best for you, too.

Commends County

Thirdly, The County expended $126,806.11 during 1942 on the new hospital unit at the Institution Home, Black Rock, making total expenditures to date of $208,652.42, with $44,489.95 retained and (or) on unfinished contracts.

Fourthly, Although the County Commissioners budgeted $1,828,219.23 for a 9 month period ending September 30th, 1942, for expenditures of the county, they actually spent $1,302,972.37. This is good housekeeping on their part for it represents a saving of over one-half million dollars.

In 1941, our tax rate was 2 1/2 mills. This meant that if you owned a property in our county, assessed at $4,000, you paid a county and institution tax of $10.00. This year you paid $9.00.

In Delaware County, the rate for 1941 was 4 1/2 mills and you would have paid on the same assessment, tax of $19.00.

In Westmoreland County, with the rate of 6 1/2 mills, your tax would have been $26.00.

In Luzerne County, with the rate of 8 1/2 mills, your tax would have been $32.00; and

In Lackawanna County, with the rate of 9 1/2 mills, your tax would have been $36.00.

2. County Aid to Political Subdivisions. The item, "Capital Outlay" includes the aid given by the County Commissioners to Townships and Boroughs. Montgomery County spent in 1941, for this purpose, $808,349 which was approximately $300,000 more than the combined expenditures of the other 3rd class counties.

3. Debt. As stated above our County is free of debt. As of 1941, the other 3rd class counties had the following "net bonded" debt: Delaware County, $4,506,931; Luzerne County, $2,503,806; Westmoreland County, $1,531,074; and Lackawanna County, $1,169,390.

4. Efficiency. In no instance, has efficiency been sacrificed for economy. On the contrary, the highest efficiency has been demanded for all departments and at a cost that was normal under existing conditions. In this sphere, I congratulate our Judges who have certainly established a remarkable record for low judiciary costs and expenses.

5. Cooperation. This is an item that does not outwardly appear in dollars and cents and yet nets remarkable returns where cooperation exists. In many counties throughout the State, there is considerable friction between the various departments resulting in more costly operation. Montgomery County Commissioners are constantly endeavoring to reduce friction to a minimum, thus ensuring a maximum of service.

Old Time G.O.P. Vote Turns Out To Swamp Democrats In All Districts

Lower Merion's 19 election districts gave comfortable, old time majorities to all Republican candidates in Tuesday's election.

State Senator Franklin Spencer Edmonds, who is seriously ill, led the ticket with 10,422 votes to 2,450 cast for his Democratic opponent, Gerald R. Nocton. All of the candidates, from General Edward Martin down, topped their oppositions by more than 7,000 votes with the exception of Allen M. Stearne running for Supreme Court against Grover C. Ladner. In Lower Merion Stearne only emerged with a 6,892 edge over his rival.

Of the Township's 19 districts there was not one in the Democratic column, a Republican accomplishment which old timers said reminded them of days before the New Deal and Roosevelt Democrats made their best showing in West Manayunk where their standard bearer, F. Clair Ross, polled 269 votes against 293 cast for General Martin, the governor-elect.

Like other sections of Montgomery County, Lower Merion Republicans and Democrats surprised themselves by getting out a heavy vote. Together the major parties had 22,563 registered voters and of these 12,856 cast ballots in the gubernatorial contest. This gave them a voting record of 56 percent. Broken down by parties the Republicans with 19,631 registered and 10,265 voting polled 52 percent of their vote and the Democrats with 2,932 registered and 2,591 voting polled 88 percent.

Cynwyd again walked off with high voting honors when the Republicans cast 920 votes for General Martin and the Democrats 135 for Ross. South Ardmore 4, which incorporates Overbrook Hills and Penn Wynne, the home of Samuel K. McConnell, Jr., chairman of the Lower Merion Township Republican Committee, wasn't far behind when it gave General Martin 831 to 115 votes for Ross.

Penocoy 2 or Cynwyd Estates gave both Ross and Martin the least number of votes they polled in any of the districts but this was due to light registrations. Martin polled 201 votes to 39 for Ross with 385 Republicans and 25 Democrats registered in the district.

The heavy vote for Senator Edmonds was interpreted as a personal tribute to a man who, as Montgomery County's representative, has established an enviable legislative record in the Upper House of the State Legislature.

Although there were predictions that Congressman J. William Ditter would be out in favor of his Democratic opponent, Charles W. Moyer, these failed to materialize and Ditter came through with as comfortable a majority as any of the other candidates.

NARBERTH SCHOOL NOTES

On Tuesday, Jim Keightley's team again opposed Bob Hackman's team in soccer. The score was 2-1 in favor of Hackman's team. Jim Pratantoni and Bill Sidler made goals.

The score was zero-zero at the end of their football game on Wednesday. Captains of the opposing teams are Edward McQuiston and John Cappelli.

The Grays were again victorious over the Reds in intramural hockey by a score of 3-1. Jane Miller, Jean Ridge, and Joyce Boardman made the Gray goals and Virginia Bailey made the Red goal.
